Tell me about your treasures, and make me an outfit to dance in

Listen to the story of Willow's box
<https://tinyurl.com/little-dancer>

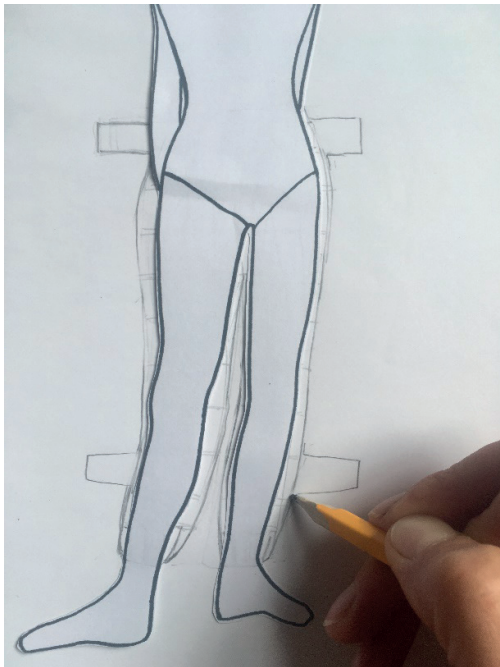

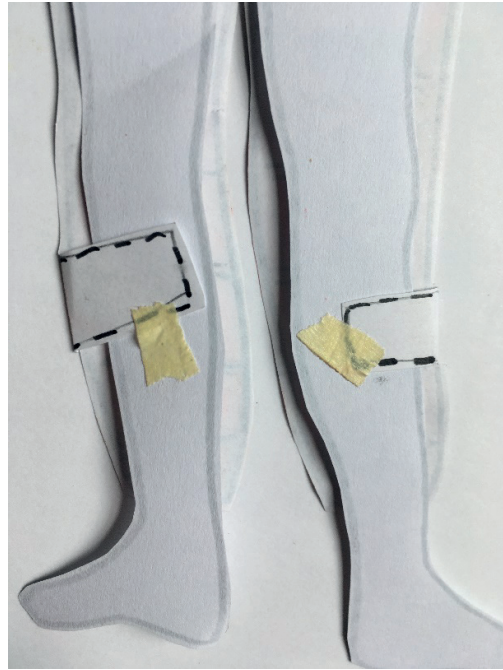

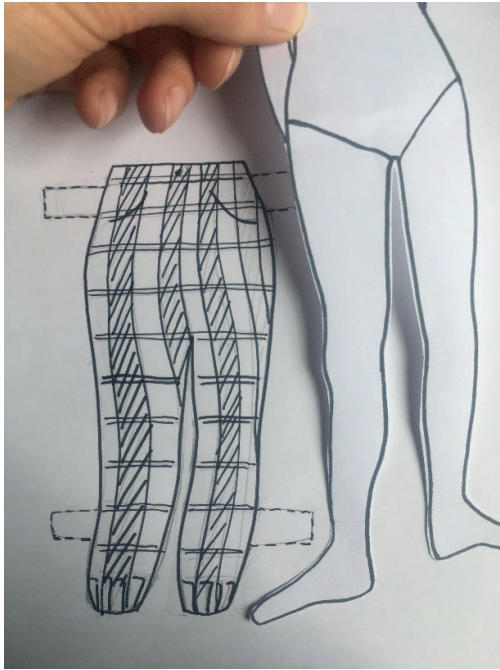

What old treasures do you have lying around your house?
Can you make an imaginary memory box like Willow?
What stories do your objects tell?

If you are playing with your family you could make a box for each other, but don't say what's inside, let each other explore the objects like you have never seen them before.

Would you like to make me a new outfit to dance in?

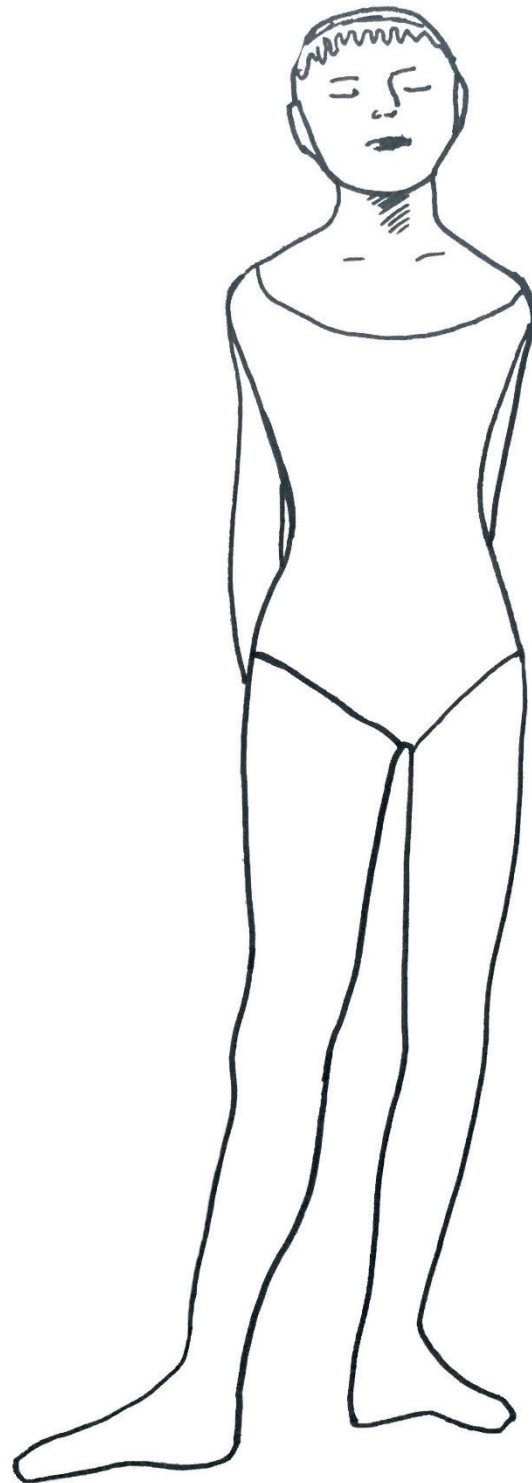

Print or draw out the template onto paper or card and cut it out.
Use the template to draw around to design some new clothes for your dancer.
Make sure you draw in some tabs so you can fold your paper clothes.

Think about the personality of your little dancer,
what might they want to wear?

Mine has tartan trousers.
